You Survived ... Let's Have Some Fun!

Good Morning Van Students ...

You have survived six weeks of Distance Learning in Music Class ... and now it's time to have some fun!

Before we jump into this week's activity, let's take a look at where you have been ... and what you have done throughout the past six weeks. Your journey of Do The Five began with the Hand Jive Alive. I saw some great videos of hand jives ... and believe it or not ... there were three students who beat Mr. Craig at his hand jive challenge.

Throughout the following weeks, you explored the Elbow Cough and Go, Don't Touch It, Six Feet Slide, and No Place Like Home. I was so impressed with everyone who submitted videos, photos, and responses to the lessons. You are all superstars and deserve a big round of applause. Clap, clap, clap ... and more ...

Distance Learning has been a challenge for all involved ... yet extremely rewarding at the same time. I received responses from students who are very quiet in class. I believe this experience gave them the courage to speak out ... eliminating the fear of embarrassment. I am so proud of these young Bombers.

As I reflect on the school year and prepare for end-of-the-year music awards, I believe the learning experience did not stop as we walked out of the school doors back in March. In fact, I believe in the saying ... When the going gets tough, the tough get going. The music awards presented this year will reflect on individual participation from August, 2019, to May, 2020. My motto for the day is ... stay strong and never give up!

Bombers Home-Bound Bandz update ... wow ... there are great new bands out there! I can't wait for you to see them! A video will be released this Wednesday, at 9 a.m. CST, featuring all Bombers Bandz. The top Primary and Van bands, as well as those receiving special recognition, will be announced at each of the online awards presentations.

NOW ...let's have some fun ... see page two for details! Keep a song in your heart ... Mrs. Craig
